

A DAY WITH OUR ENGLISH PEN-FRIENDS

A Day with our pen-friends from England

On Tuesday May 20th, our pen-friends from Hackney spent the morning in our school in some different classes. They ate with us at the school canteen. In the afternoon we went to Paris and had a cruise on the Seine for one hour. We introduced ourselves. We got to know each other. After the cruise we went under the Eiffel Tower for a quarter of an hour. Then we came back to the coach through the Trocadéro and we came back to school. It was a very nice day.

Our day in Paris

In the morning, our English pen-friends attended lessons in different classes. They ate at the canteen at noon and enjoyed their meals with us. At break, we spoke with them. Later, we took the coach, went on a boat and had a cruise on the Seine. After the cruise, we saw the Eiffel Tower from the Trocadero. They bought food and joked with us. It was hard to part, we gave each other our Facebook accounts, Instagram and other applications to talk with them everywhere. We hope to see them next year in Hackney !

Our pen-friends

On May 20th we went to Paris with our pen-friends and we took a « bateau-mouche ». We asked them questions about their lives. They didn't speak much French but still it was very cool. The weather was cloudy and a little bit rainy. After this cruise we went to the Eiffel Tower. There, we were able to speak with them even if we were a little shy. Then, they had to leave us so the day was finished.

An English afternoon in Paris

The first time we saw their names we were all laughing because we had never seen such names before.

They were very nice and very funny. On the boat, we talked about their school and what they thought about ours. We had a good afternoon with our pen-friends . We had a lot of fun and we laughed a lot with Kevin's pen-friend.

VERY NICE DAY!

This day was great ! The view from the boat was beautiful, but the weather could have been better. I'm very shy and it's really a shame my shyness prevented me to talk more with my pen-friend. But still, the cruise was spectacular and Paris is magic !

They came in our school, now it would be nice if we could also go. And visit them. Thank you for this nice day

A great day

It's the first time we took the boat with our pen-friends. The weather was bad because the English brought the rain ☺ We laughed a lot with our pen-friends. They were really cool and generous. We gave each other our Facebook accounts . We miss them and we want to see them again.

Tuesday, May 20th

Our afternoon was very funny and our English pen-friends were very friendly. We had crazy moments with them.

We met different students like : Laurana, Hacı and Naheemat... it was a pleasant moment but it's a shame that it wasn't sunny. We appreciated sharing our ideas.

We would like to see them again ! :-D

Our Nice Day

We Loved this day ! We liked the concept of going on a cruise on the Seine to share a good moment and try to speak English with our English pen-friends. We managed to communicate, it was easy to communicate with them because they made efforts to understand us...
